To such and the same Uses, upon such and the same Trusts, and to and for such and the same Ends, Intents, and Purposes, and charged and chargeable in the same Manner, and under the same Powers, Provisoos, Conditions, and Agreements, as were limited, expressed, and declared of, and concerning the said One undivided Fourth Part, of the Manors and Premises, in the said County of Lincoln, comprised in the said recited Indenture, of the Fourteenth of May, One thousand seven hundred and Forty-six, subject, nevertheless, to the Payment of the said Sum, of Five thousand Pounds, and Interest secured by the said Mortgage, to the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons: And in further Performance of the said recited Agreement, so made between the said John Williams, and Charlotte Maria, his Wife, and Elizabeth Abdy; and for confirming the said Partition, so made between them: The said John Williams for himself, and the said Charlotte Maria his Wife, and her Heirs, Executors and Administrators, and the said Elizabeth Abdy for herself, her Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, did thereby severally covenant and grant, to and with the said Sir John Abdy, and Peter Delme, their Heirs and Assigns, that they, the said John Williams, and Charlotte Maria his Wife, or her Heirs, and the said Elizabeth Abdy, or her Heirs, and all other Persons having, or lawfully claiming, any Estate or Interest of, into or out of the Copy-hold, or Customary-Lands, and Hereditaments, called Church-Mead and Boggas, within, or holden of the Manor of Kelvedon, alias Church-Hall, in the said County of Essex, from, by, or under them, any or either of them, should and would forthwith surrender, into the Hands of the Lord of the same Manor, according to the Custom of the said Manor, all and singular, the same Hereditaments and Premises, to such and the same Uses, and upon such and the same Trusts, and for such and the same Ends, Intents, and Purposes, and charged and chargeable in the same Manner, and under the same Provisoos, Powers, Conditions, and Agreements, as were limited, expressed and declared, of and concerning the Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, in and by the said recited Indenture, of the Fourteenth of May, One thousand seven hundred and Forty-six; or as near thereto, as the Custom of the said Manor would admit.

And whereas, the principal Sum of Five thousand Pounds, secured by Mortgage to the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons, as aforesaid, was by them advanced, and lent on such Mortgage, on or about the Sixteenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty-one, and did consist of the principal Sum of Four thousand Pounds, which Dame Elizabeth Shovell, late of Maryplace in the County of Kent, Widow, did, by her last Will and Testament in Writing, dated the Twelfth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, give and devise unto the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons, upon Trust for her Grand-daughter the Honourable Harriot Marsham, in such Manner as therein is mentioned; and of the Sum of One thousand Pounds, which had arisen from the Interest, Increase, and Improvement of the said Legacy or Sum of Four thousand Pounds: And thereupon by Indentures of Lease and Release, bearing Date respectively the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Days of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty-one, the Indenture of Release being Quinquupartite, and made or mentioned to be made, between the Right Honourable Sir Edmund Probyn, Knight, Lord Chief Baron of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, of the first Part; the Honourable Elizabeth Marsham, Spinster, of the second Part; the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons, by the several Descriptions therein mentioned, of the third Part; the Right Honourable Elizabeth Countess of Hyndford, late Elizabeth Lady Romney, of the fourth Part; and the said Sir Robert Abdy, and also Thomas Bramston, Esquire, and James Boys, Esquire, therein named, of the fifth Part. After reciting divers Conveyances and Assurances, and other Matters, whereby, or by Means whereof, the said Manor of Filol's Hall, otherwise Felix Hall, and other the Premises, were become, and then were vested in the said Sir Edmund Probyn, his Heirs and Assigns, in Trust for the said Elizabeth Marsham, her Heirs and Assigns, subject to Redemption by the said Sir Robert Abdy, Thomas Bramston, and James Boys, on Payment of the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, and Interest for the same in Manner therein mentioned. The said Manor and Premises were, in Consideration of the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, mentioned in the said Indenture of Release, to be paid to the said Elizabeth Marsham, by the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons, and for other the Considerations therein expressed, conveyed and assured by the said Sir Edmund Probyn, by the Direction of the said Elizabeth Marsham, and ratified and confirmed by the said Sir Robert Abdy, Thomas Bramston, and James Boys, unto and to the Use of the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons, their Heirs and Assigns for ever, subject to Redemption on Payment by the said Sir Robert Abdy, Thomas Bramston, and James Boys, their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, of the Sum of One hundred forty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and nine-pence, to the said Elizabeth Marlbam, on the Fifteenth Day of May then next ensuing, for the Interest of the said Five thousand Pounds due to her on the Day of the Date of the said Indenture of Release; and of the Sum of Five thousand two hundred and twenty-five Pounds, unto the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons, on the Trusts mentioned in the said Will of the said Dame Elizabeth Shovell, at such Times, and in such Manner as in the said Indenture of Release are mentioned.

And whereas the said Sum of One hundred forty-seven Pounds seventeen Shillings and nine-pence, was paid to the said Elizabeth Marlbam, but the principal Sum of Five thousand Pounds, and some Interest for the same, doth now remain due and owing on the said Mortgage or Security, so made to the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons, as aforesaid.

And whereas, at the Time of the said Exchange, the said Manor, Hereditaments, and Premises, in the said County of Essex, were estimated and computed, to be of the Value of Twelve thousand eight hundred and eighty-two Pounds, Eleven Shillings and Three Pence; (including the Mansion-House called Felix Hall, which was valued at Five hundred Pounds; and the Timber growing upon the Premises, which was likewise valued at One thousand five hundred and forty Pounds, and Nine Pence) and which, with the One thousand one hundred Pounds, paid by the said Elizabeth Addy, for Equality of Partition, amounted together to Thirteen thousand nine hundred and eighty-two Pounds, Eleven Shillings and Three Pence.

And whereas the said John Williams, and Charlotte Maria his Wife, have Issue between them, Two Sons, namely, John Williams, and James Williams, now living, both Infants, and no other Children.

And whereas, since the said Exchange, so made and compleated as aforesaid, the said John Williams, finding the said Mansion-House called Felix-Hall, much out of Repair, and in a decaying Condition, did erect and build a New Mansion-House, and Offices to the same belonging, and therein, and in repairing, and improving the Farms and Lands, so settled as aforesaid: He did lay out and expend the Sum of Four thousand Pounds, and upwards.

And whereas the said John Williams, by reason of such Sum of Money, so expended and laid out as aforesaid, and to answer other the necessary Occasions of himself and Family, hath contracted several Debts, amounting to the Principal Sum of Six thousand Pounds, and upwards (exclusive of the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, so charged by Mortgage, on the said settled Estate as aforesaid) the greatest Part whereof, carries a high Rate of Interest, whereby and by the Methods which may be used, and taken for the recovering the same, and the Expences and other ill Consequences incident thereto; great Inconvenience may fall upon the said John Williams and his Family, and as it may on that Account be highly necessary, that as well the said Five thousand Pounds Mortgage Debt, as other the said Debts and Incumbrances of the said John Williams, should be forthwith paid and discharged: The said John Williams, for the Repose and Preservation of himself and Family, is desirous that the said settled Estate, in the County of Essex, may be forthwith sold and disposed of; and the said Charlotte Maria Williams his Wife, hath consented and agreed, that such Sale should be effected and carried into Execution.

And whereas the said John Williams humbly apprehends, and is advised, that by the rebuilding the said Mansion-House, and making such Improvements as aforesaid, and from the Price which Lands now bear; the said Mansion-House and settled Estate, will now sell for the Sum of Twenty-one thousand four hundred and ninety Pounds, and upwards: And therefore he is desirous that the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, may be first taken out of the Money, to arise by Sale thereof, and applied in Discharge of the said Mortgage Debt, due on the said settled Estate as aforesaid, and in the next Place, the Sum of Six thousand Pounds, to be applied towards Payment of his Debts, and subject thereto, that the Residue of the said Purchase-Money, which is computed, will amount to Ten thousand four hundred and ninety Pounds, or upwards, being more, by One thousand five hundred and seven Pounds, Eight Shillings and Nine Pence, than the same settled Estate, and the Eleven hundred Pounds paid for Equality of Partition, was valued at the Time of the Exchange, after Payment of the said Mortgage-Debt of Five thousand Pounds, shall be laid out in the Purchase of Lands, and Hereditaments, to be settled to the same Uses, as the said settled Estate doth now stand settled and limited: And, in order to make a further Recompence to the said Charlotte Maria his Wife, and his Issue Male by her, for the Prejudice that may accrue to them, by the Application of the said Sum of Six thousand Pounds, Part of the Money to arise by Sale of the said settled Estate: He the said John Williams doth propose, and is willing to give up, settle, and secure the following following Equivalent, viz. First, To waive and divest himself of his Power, to commit Waste, which is annexed to his Estate for Life, by the last recited Settlement, and which from the Valuation of the Timber, and Wood, now standing and growing upon the said settled Estate, (exclusive of the Increase and Improvement that may during his Life, be reasonably supposed to happen and arise in the same) is computed to amount to the Sum of Two thousand six hundred Pounds, or upwards. And Secondly, To settle and secure out of the Rents and Profits of the Estate; to be purchased with the Residue of the Money, to arise by such Sale as aforesaid, during the natural Life of him, the said John Williams, the yearly Sum of Two hundred Pounds also, from Time to Time laid out in the Purchase of Lands, to be settled in such manner as herein before is mentioned, which yearly Sum of Two hundred Pounds, upon the most reasonable Calculation, is Estimated to be worth at least Two thousand Pounds: But altho' such Equivalent so proposed, will be a full and ample Recompence to the said Charlotte Maria Williams; and her Issue by the said John Williams, for any Prejudice that might accrue to them, by Sale and Disposition of the said settled Estate; and the Application of the said Sum of Six thousand Pounds, for Payment of the Debts of the said John Williams, besides the One thousand one hundred Pounds, paid for Equality of Partition; yet by reason of the Limitations contained in the said last mentioned Settlement, and the Infancy of the Sons of the said John Williams; the said settled Estate cannot be sold or disposed of, nor a good Title made to a Purchaser, or Purchasers thereof, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: Wherefore, your Majesty's Most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the said John Williams and Charlotte Maria his Wife, for themselves, and on the Behalf of John Williams, and James Williams, their two Infant Sons: Do most humbly beseech Your Most Excellent Majesty, That it may be Enacted: And be it Enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Manor of Filol's-Hall, alias Felix-Hall, or by whatsoever other Name or Names, the same heretofore was or is now called or known, with the Rights, Members, and Appurtenances thereof; and the new-erected capital Messuage or Mansion-House, called Filol's-Hall, alias Felix-Hall, with the Gardens, Orchards, Lands, and Hereditaments thereto belonging, or therewith used, occupied or enjoyed; and all and every the Freehold Messuages, Farms, Lands, Tenements, Woods, Wood-Grounds, Rents, Hereditaments, and Premises, situate, and being in the said County of Essex, which in and by the said recited Indentures of Lease and Release, of the seventh and eighth days of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, herein before recited, and the Fine levied in Pursuance thereof, were conveyed, settled, limited, and assured, or mentioned, or intended to be conveyed, settled, limited, and assured, to the Uses, and for the Purposes therein expressed, with their and every of their Rights, Royalties, Members, and Appurtenances: And the Reversion and Reversions, Remainder and Remainders, Rents, Issues, and Profits, of all and singular the same Premises, shall from and after the day of

One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one, be settled upon and vested in, and the same are hereby, from thenceforth settled upon and vested in their Heirs and Assigns, freed and discharged, and absolutely acquitted, exempted and exonerated, of from and against all, and every the Uses, Estates, Trusts, Powers, Provisoes, Limitations, Covenants, and Agreements, in and by the said several recited Indentures, of the Fourteenth day of May, One thousand seven hundred and forty-six, and the Eighth day of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, limited, created, provided, and declared, of and concerning the same: But nevertheless, upon the Trusts, and to and for the Ends, Intents and Purposes herein after-mentioned, expressed and declared, (that is to say) Upon Trust, that they the said and such Sale or Sales, in Manner and for the Purposes herein aftermentioned ; that is to say, in the first Place for the paying and defraying the Charges and Expences attending the obtaining and passing this Act, and executing and completing the Sale or Sales, Conveyances, and Assurances incident thereto, and the Execution of the Trusts hereby created and declared : And in the next Place, in Payment, Satisfaction, and Discharge of the said principal Sum of Five thousand Pounds, now due and owing, and secured on the said Mortgage, or Security so made to the said Sir John Norris, Joseph Kirke, and Richard Symons, as herein before is mentioned ; and afterwards of the several Bond Debts of the said John Williams, mentioned and comprised in the Schedule thereof hereunto annexed, amounting to the Sum of Six thousand Pounds : And after Payment thereof, and subject thereto, then, upon this further Trust, that they the said and or the Survivor of them, or the Executors and Administrators of such Survivor shall, and do (by and with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, or at the Trustees own Discretion) lay out, apply, and dispose of the Residue and Surplus of the Money, arising by such Sale or Sales, which shall remain after, and shall not be applied in Manner and for the Purposes aforesaid, in one or more Purchase or Purchases of Manors, Freehold Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Fee-Simple, in Possession, and of Copyhold or customary Messuages, Lands, and Hereditaments, any or either of them, situate and being in some Part of Great Britain, called England : And shall, and do settle, convey, and assure the Manors, Freehold, and Copyhold, or customary Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, so to be purchased, to the Uses, upon the Trusts, and in Manner herein aftermentioned ; that is to say, As to the Manors, Freehold Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, with their Appurtenances, to the Use of two Trustees in the said intended Settlement to be named, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during the Term of One hundred Years from thence next ensuing, upon the Trusts herein aftermentioned ; and from and after the End, Expiration, or other sooner Determination of the said Term, and subject thereto, to the Use of the said John Williams, and his Assigns, for and during the Term of his natural Life : And from and after the Determination of that Estate, by Forfeiture or otherwise, to the Use of two other Trustees, in the said intended Settlement to be named, and their Heirs, during the Life of the said John Williams, upon Trust to preserve the contingent Uses and Estates herein after limited, from being defeated or destroyed ; and for that Purpose, to make Entries, and bring Actions, as Occasion shall require : Yet, nevertheless, to permit and suffer the said John Williams, and his Assigns, to receive and take the Rents, Issues, and Profits thereof, and of every Part thereof, to his and their own Use during his Life : And immediately from and after the Decease of the said John Williams, to, for, upon, and subject to such, and so many of the Uses, Estates, Powers, Provisoos, Limitations, Declarations, and Agreements, in and by the said several recited Indentures of the Fourteenth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and forty-six, and Eighth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, or one of them limited, created, expressed, provided and declared, concerning the Manor, Lands, and Hereditaments, in the said County of Essex, as shall be then existing, undetermined or capable of taking Effect : And as to the Copyhold, or customary Messuages, Lands, and Hereditaments, so to be purchased as aforesaid, with their Appurtenances, to, for, upon, and subject to such, and the same Uses, Estates, Trusts, Powers, Provisoos, Limitations, Declarations, and Agreements, as are herein before directed, to be limited and created of the Manors, Freehold Lands, and Hereditaments, so to be purchased as aforesaid, or as near thereto, as by the Rules of Law or Equity, and the Custom of the Manor or Manors, whereof the same Copyhold, or customary Premises shall be held, the same can be done.
